

Steps to Apply for an F-1 Visa

<http://www.international.txstate.edu/prospective/afterapplying.html>

Pay the SEVIS fee to activate your SEVIS ID on your Form I-20

Pay the I-901 SEVIS Fee, visit FMJfee.com to access the SEVIS Form I-901. Save a copy of your receipt for the visa interview

Make a Visa Appointment

After being accepted to an SEVP-certified school and getting a receipt for payment of the I-901 fee, you can apply for an F-1 student visa at a U.S. embassy or consulate.

Complete the Visa Application form DS-160

1. Print and keep the DS-160 barcode page.
2. You must schedule a visa interview appointment.
3. Pay the visa application processing fee. Review country-specific instructions on the U.S. Embassy or Consulate website.

Your F-1 Visa is Approved

Review 10 Points to remember when applying for a student visa

Visit: <http://www.international.txstate.edu/prospective/afterapplying/Prepare-For-Your-Visa-Interview.html>

Interview with a Consular Officer

Pre-Arrival Information

Pre-Arrival Packet

Helpful Opportunities and Where to find them

Next Steps Checklist Form

Visit: <http://www.international.txstate.edu/prospective/afterapplying.html>

The visa application process often includes an interview with a visa officer.

Visas are generally denied because of the following U.S. laws:

- 214 (b): Intention to immigrate to the U.S
- 221 (g): Insufficient documentation
- 212 (a) (4): Likely to become a public charge (insufficient funds)

Make your Plans To Attend Texas State University

